

Herald Sun

Wednesday 8/10/2008

Page: 19

Section: Letters

Region: Melbourne Circulation: 530,000

Type: Capital City Daily

Size: 23.40 sq.cms.

Published: MTWTFS-

Brief: CITY-B

Time to stop the stacking

WITH the coming council elections, it should be compulsory for all candidates to declare their preferred political party on how-to-vote forms.

This may help to stop political stacking in local councils.

At the moment, all we get is a photograph, and self-praise, only to find later that we have been dudded with another political party, and not a broad representation of the local communities.

Tom Baldwin, Loch Sport